

36th ILANZ Conference

Te Hunga Panoni – The Changemakers

Call for speakers

ILANZ
In-house lawyers
Ngā Rōia ā Roto

When: Wednesday 22 and Thursday 23 May 2024

Where: Marlborough Events Centre, Blenheim

Our conference is designed by in-house lawyers, for in-house lawyers. For 36 years we've gathered members together to inspire professional and personal development. Our conference theme, Te Hunga Panoni, acknowledges our members as agents of change within an organisation.

We know our in-house community has a wealth of expertise to share with attendees so here's your opportunity to contribute - whether it's suggesting a topic, recommending a speaker, sharing your own success story, cautionary tale or favourite mistake, we'd be delighted to hear from you.

In-house lawyers selected to present at the ILANZ Conference will be given a 50% discount code to use at registration. In-house presenters are required to organise their own travel and accommodation.

Topic examples:

- In-house practice today:
 - In-house and external lawyers – building better relationships
 - Training and support for new in-house lawyers
 - How to create and structure a great in-house team
 - Practical sessions e.g. ethics, leadership, managing conflicts of interest or matters of privilege
- Innovative in-house practice of the future:
 - Use of AI in-house
 - Climate change in an economic resilient way
 - Te ao Māori and the law
 - Productivity

Timeframe:

Deadline for submissions: 22 January

Results communicated: w/c 11 March
